Mott-Wilson Nuptials Tonight

The marriage of Miss Irene Rose Mott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick R. Mott, 874 South Hohman street to Charles William Wilson will take place Wednesday evening, November sixth, at six o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, the Rev. Charles Albert Smith of St. Paul's Episcopal church will read the service. The bridal gown is of white brocaded charmeuse satin trimmed with pearls from her mother's wedding gown, duchesse and rose point lace and has a full court train. The bride will wear a Juliette cap of pearls and tulle veil and carry a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and orchids. The matron of honor, Mrs. T. Edwin Bell, aunt of the bride, is to be gowned in gold and blue brocade velvet trimmed with crystal lace and fur and carry Mrs. Ward roses. Little Ruth and Carolyn Hohman, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Hohman and cousins of the bride are to act as flower girls. They will wear dainty French frocks. Harry R. Wilson of Chicago is to attend the bridegroom as best man. The bride will be given in marriage by her father.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Elisabeth Korrer of Fon du Lac, Wis. is to give a song recital. She will sing "Because" and "The Years of the Spring" by Guy d'Hardelot and the bridal song "I loved It Is Morn" by Alward. Her piano accompaniment will be played by Miss Mae Hanson. Miss Hanson will also play the "Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin for the processional and the recessional. Mendelssohn's Wedding March. A dinner will be served the wedding guests immediately following the ceremony.

The reception at 8:30 o'clock in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson will be a pretty event. There will be two hundred guests, among them a number from out of town. Mr. and Mrs. Mott with the members of their family will receive the guests. An orchestra stationed in the music room will play during the hours of the reception. Refreshments will be served the guests. The drawing room, which is the scene of the nuptial service, is beautiful with palms, ferns, smilax and yellow and white chrysanthemums. Pretty greenery and yellow and white chrysanthemums were used in abundance and artistically decorated the reception hall and music room.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson will spend their MOTHERS ATTENTION!

Your children should be taught to dance, taught properly. It should be a part of their education. In many cities dancing is taught in the public schools from the kindergarten to the high schools. Dancing is necessary to their health. It is recreation. It teaches them how to walk properly, how to appear in public, how to appreciate the courtesies of a lady of gentleman gracefully. Don't look at dancing as a frivolity. Take it seriously, it is a serious matter, they need it. You can afford it. The season starts Saturday of this week at DaPron's Academy, over the Orpheum Theater at 2:30 p. m. The tuition is one dollar per month or six months for $4.50. Children must be of the ages 6 to 12 years. Adults classes for ladies and gentlemen, beginners only Monday and Friday nights 50 cents per lesson or guaranteed course $2. Private lessons by appointment $1.—Adv.

A LUNCHEON.
Mrs. Nicholas Emmerring will entertain the members of the Erthstane Club at luncheon at one o'clock Tuesday afternoon, November 19th at her home in Mason street.
