THE PRESIDENT'S TRAVELS

He is Welcomed to Denver by a Slight Throng.

A special from Denver, dated the 14th inst., says the presidential train arrived here on the yesterday morning.
It was preceded by a special train bearing the Governor and Mayor of Denver.
It is estimated that fully 10,000 people were in the streets to greet the President. Senators Taylor and Wolcott met the party at the depot. A procession was formed, headed by a platoon of police.
Following were the local militia regiments,
the Grand Army, and the various organizations of the city. The President was accompanied by the Governor and Mayor, and a large number of other officials.

A WEDDING INVITATION

SERMON PREACHED BY DR. TAL-MAGE.

It Was Preceded by the Baptism by the Doctor of a Number of Infants with Water Brought from the Jordan.

An interesting ceremony was held in the Brooklyn tabernacle last evening. A number of infants were baptized with water brought from the Jordan.

The subject of Dr. Talmage's sermon was "Invitation to a Wedding," and the text Luke 14: 17, "Come, for all things are ready."

Holy matrimony is a sacred union, and one that should be entered into with care and deliberation.

NEW YORK

—The first accident since the electric street car was put into operation, last week. A little boy was pushed under a car by a girl playmate, being ground to pieces.

—Miss Lizzie Barnett, Crawfordsville Salvation Army soldier, kicked by a mule, declares she's going to die; doctors say she isn't, she "knows better, she is, 'cause she hid a 'knock' warning" just a short time ago.

—A Greenburg 4-year-old daughter of John Lawrence fell in a spring, and was drowned. There was only about eight inches of water, but she was unable to recover herself, and was dead when the mother found her.

—Aaron B. Scott, one of the pioneer merchants of Peru, and who was prominently identified with its advancement for forty years, died of paralysis, aged 76 years. He was one of the oldest Knights Templars in Northern Indiana.

—Quite a number of "queer" half-dollar coins are being circulated in and around Edinburg. They made their appearance the first time within the past few days. They bear dates of 1854 and 1856, and are light in weight and color. They are also easily mutilated.

—A colored man in Crawfordsville, besides carrying a rabbit's foot and other voodoo articles, has lately secured the dried hand of a child, which he has in his vest pocket. He secured this hand in the West and considers it a charm more powerful than the incantations of a voodoo doctor.

—Henry Harris has twenty acres of land in Cicemaw Township, Shelby County, which, twenty years ago, Henry Harris purchased 100 fine walnut trees for $3,300. Last week Miley purchased seventy-five walnut trees for $8,000. He has a fine lot of walnut trees, worth of ash and oak timber on the place.

—Bedford can now boast of three banks. A new bank, organized under the State law, has just been incorporated under the name of the Citizens' Bank of Bedford, with a capital stock of $50,000. Col. A. C. Voris is President, and J. R. Voris, Cashier. The directors are W. H. Martin, John Hassel, P. D. Norton, and J. L. Wright.

—Wm. Vreeland, living near Middletown, who kept a store, and who had a fine lot of wheat stored in his barn for a year, while removing the wheat for market, found an old pocketbook containing $1,500 in gold coin and paper currency. How the money came there is a mystery. The money has been placed in the bank at Middletown.

—Rev. Geo. Attorney M. G. Rhoads, Dr. M. L. Hall, and several other prominent citizens of Newport went to the Washburn River fishing. They tied their rods in the boat, and when they returned, they found the rods missing. After searching some time the animal was discovered at the bottom of an old well, into which he had fallen. The pony was small and easily hauled out of the well, slightly worse off for his fall.

—The Attorney General has been asked: "Is a convict, who is granted a new trial by the Supreme Court, and returned to his County, entitled to sit as a juror in the trial of a case?" The law says that every convict who shall have served six months or more when discharged shall be furnished with $15. A convict is not discharged when a new trial is granted; the custody of the prisoner is simply shifted from the warden of the prison to the sheriff of the County in which a new trial is granted.

—The Episcopal minister at Crawfordsville was awakened the other night by wailing yelps of a dog. A search revealed the fact that the dog had fallen into a dry well under his house. He planned and carried out several schemes to get the dog out of the well. As a last resort he got a rope and made a jasso on the end of the rope. He lowered the jasso into the well, and the dog, who had got the head of the dog in the jasso and then pulled the dog out. The animal was almost choked to death when he reached the top of the well, but soon recovered breath and started for home on the run.

—Great excitement has been caused at Burrows by a gang of so-called White Caps, who have been trying to terrorize the community for the last eight months. A mob has been meeting secretly at various times recently, and the other night collected at midnight and aroused from bed some of the best citizens. They have for some time been sending "White Cap" letters threatening to burn and do bodily harm. They threaten to burn the Washburn River depot. There is strong talk of a vigilance committee getting in the way of this state of affairs.

—At Muncie, Pa., a case of a woman in a hall's breadth of being his wife, Constable J. K. Miller called at Ford's home to subpoena him. The little Irishman was intoxicated and refused to go. As Miller took hold of him Ford pulled a revolver, but the officer was too quick and fired first. The ball hit Ford over the left eye and miraculously glanced off, plowing a furrow to the ear. The mother of Dr. G. Taylor, of Peru, requested that her heart, lungs, and feet be preserved in alcohol and taken to France after her death, and the doctor has left Peru to carry out the instructions.

—The name of New Providence has been changed to Horton Lake to New Providence and over the fence again to Borden within a few months.

—Midland agent Moorland, Lapel, concealed $60 in a waste basket for safety—Janitor emptied contents of basket into a fire, burned up money and all.
