

RECORD CROWD ATTENDS CITY COUNCIL MEET

TRAILER COURT OPPOSITION RESULTED IN TURN-OUT ON MONDAY

The biggest crowd that has attended a council meeting in more than 10 years, turned out for Monday night's special meeting of the Planning Commission and the Council meeting. Despite the fact that both sides in the controversy over the establishment of trailer courts on Berry street, had their say at the meeting, the Planning Commission decided it did not have jurisdiction at this time and the whole matter was tossed out, even before the case really got started.

What started the whole matter was that Mr. and Mrs. Fritzingler asked the council for permission to enlarge their trailer court on Berry street to include lots south of them between Indiana and College. Then Ezra Craft asked permission to start a new trailer court on his lot between Berry and Sunset Drive, west of Indiana street.

Monday night at the special meeting, the council chamber was filled with interested spectators. J. B. Marsh who was acting as agent for the vacant lots, spoke on behalf of the new trailer court and then Frank Stoessel who had been employed by the remonstrators read a list of 73 signers to petitions, all within the neighborhood, against the enlarged trailer court. Mr. Stoessel read Section Five of the Zoning Ordinance which prohibits trailer court from being opened within the city limits and said they would decrease the price of property at least 50 per cent in the neighborhood.

Then the Planning Commission discussed the matter among themselves and came up with the conclusion that they did not have jurisdiction until the Zoning Ordinance was changed to permit trailer courts within the city. This settled the matter and both trailer court plans were rejected. The Planning Commission said if the council wanted to permit trailer courts within the city, they must change the Zoning Ordinance so that they will be permitted.

Following adjournment of the Planning Commission, the special meeting of the council was held, but there was nothing for them to do, so they discussed the matter informally and voted on a few other matters of business and adjourned. One other matter was a permit to cut the curb and sidewalk at the Durham property, 309 East Seminary street for a garage entrance.

It was also voted to purchase the Gillespie property adjacent to the sewage disposal plant for $7,000, even though the city will have to borrow the money. Councilman Norton objected to them buying the property at Monday night's meeting, wanting to postpone it until the next regular meeting, but his motion was lost for want of a second, and it was voted, four to one, to buy the property.

The full Planning Commission including Cloyd Moss, Clark Norton, Mrs. Washler, Harold Stewart, chairman; William Boatright, Don McLean, Claude Webb, C. L. Bieber, Mayor Crawley and Secretary Granville Thompson were present.

CITY, DEPAUW PREPARE FOR NIXON'S VISIT

VICE PRESIDENT WILL SPEAK AT LUNCHEON ON SATURDAY

Final preparations are being made at DePauw University here this week for Saturday's appearance by Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

Primary purpose of the vice president's visit will be to address a large group of business executives during DePauw's fourth annual Business and Industry Day luncheon.

Arriving in Indianapolis by air at 9:30 a. m. and in Greencastle at 10:30, he also will receive the honorary doctor of laws degree from the university.

Presiding at the affair will be Eugene C. Pulliam, publisher of the Indianapolis Star and News, and the invocation will be delivered by Methodist Bishop Richard C. Raines of Indianapolis. Both are DePauw trustees.

Also appearing on the program will be Gov. Harold Handley of Indiana and the president of the university, Dr. Russell J. Humbert.

Prior to Mr. Nixon's address, guests will be welcomed by David Cryer of Findley, O., student body president, and entertained by a student choral group, the Collegians, directed by Joseph Flummerfelt of Vincennes.

Seated at the speakers' table will be Mr. Nixon, Governor and Mrs. Handley, Sen. Homer E. Capehart, Mr. Pulliam, Bishop and Mrs. Raines, Dr. and Mrs. Humbert, DePauw Trustee President and Mrs. Glenn W. Thompson, and Cryer.

Mr. Nixon will receive the honorary degree at 11:15 a. m. in front of the Roy O. West Library or, in the event of inclement weather, in Gobin Memorial Methodist Church.

Preceding the ceremony DePauw's faculty and members of the platform party will move in a formal academic procession from the Student Union to the library.

The DePauw Concert Band, directed by Prof. Dan Hanna, will perform the processional march; and the university choir, Prof. George Gove directing, will sing "A Mighty Fortress Is Our God."

Other features will include an invocation and benediction, both by Bishop Raines; two hymns—"God of Our Fathers" and "America the Beautiful"; and a union prayer.

Members of the platform party will be Mr. Nixon, Dr. Humbert, Governor Handley, Dean Farber, Mr. Thompson, Bishop Raines, Dr. Harry Voltmer, university marshal, and Dr. Herold T. Ross, secretary of the faculty.

State Policemen Will Use Radar

INDIANAPOLIS (UP)—Indiana State Police were under orders today from Governor Handley to start using radar to catch speeding motorists.

It was an innovation for the troopers, although radar has been used by local law enforcement authorities for years.

Handley issued the order late Monday as part of a traffic safety declaration recommended by the Indiana Traffic Safety Committee.

State Police Supt. Harold Zeis immediately came up with a plan for inaugurating use of the radar equipment beginning June 1.

Zeis said radar units will operate the first four months without making an arrest, during a period aimed at familiarizing troopers with the operation of the equipment and familiarizing motorists with its use.

After Oct. 1, warning and arrest tickets will be distributed instead of verbal warnings of the first four months.

Inmate Escapes From Farm Jail

Authorities today searched for an 18-year-old convicted burglar who escaped from the Indiana State Penal Farm.

Doyle Wayne Manning, Indianapolis, used a bucket handle to pry his way out of the "old jail" at the farm Saturday night. He made a hole in a brick wall separating his cell from a storeroom.

He found hacksaws in the room and cut away a wire window screen to escape, authorities said.

Manning was confined in the cell because he broke a farm rule. He "attempted to type letters," Supt. Thomas E. Tiffee said.

Manning is 5 feet eight inches tall and weighs only 125 pounds. He was sentenced to one-year at the farm on a charge of burglary in Marion Criminal Court March 21.

RED INDUSTRY WILL UNDERGO VAST CHANGES

RADICAL PLAN PRESENTED BY COMMUNIST CHIEF KHRUSHCHEV

MOSCOW (UP)—Communist Party chief Nikita Khrushchev, asked the Supreme Soviet today to order that his radical plan for re-organization of Soviet industry be carried out within the next two months.

At the first business session of the Russian parliament, Khrushchev said there can be no delay in putting the central government out of the manufacturing business and transferring control of industry to local councils. Practically everything from coal to cosmetics would be decentralized.

"The reorganization of management should not be dragged out," he said. "It should be effected in May and June this year."

Of the 30-odd existing industrial and construction ministries, Khrushchev suggested that only the aircraft, shipbuilding, radio, chemical, medium machine building and transport machinery ministries be retained.

Elaborating on the reorganization plan, commonly referred to in the Soviet press as the "Khrushchev theses," the party leader called for the establishment of 92 economic councils, including 68 in the Russian republic, 11 in the Ukraine and one in each of the other Soviet federal republics.

Ship 'Captured' By 10 Students

SYDNEY, Australia (UP)—Ten Sydney University students in pirate garb "captured" the U. S. carrier Bennington early today in a dawn prank that left American naval officers more embarrassed than amused.

Armed with cardboard cutlasses and carrying a skull and crossbones flag, the students rowed to the carrier's side, climbed the ladder and walked through the sleeping ship unchallenged. They found their way to her empty bridge and sounded the chemical warfare alarm.

Startled sailors tumbled from their bunks and the Bennington's 2,500 officers and men dashed to their stations.

The Sydney Mirror said the "pirates" held their ground against overwhelming odds on the ship's bridge before they were "arrested" by Marines and led off the ship.

UP Writer Wins Pulitzer Prize

NEW YORK (UP)—Russell Jones of the United Press, Pulitzer Prize winner in international reporting for his coverage of the Hungarian revolt, said today he stayed in embattled Budapest "because I thought that was the place for a reporter to be."

Jones got into the Hungarian capital on Oct. 29, witnessed the crushing Russian assault of Nov. 4 and was the only American newspaperman remaining in Budapest from Nov. 11 until Dec. 6 when he was expelled.

Jones said in an interview that he felt telling the Hungarian story to the Western world was the most important opportunity he had ever had.

"There was no great personal danger," he said. "The fighting in the city was confined mainly to isolated pockets and anyone could move without much peril. The secret police and the Soviets were out to kill the Hungarian rebels, not Western reporters."

"Part of our profession is to cover the news. I didn't realize how important, how much impact, the story was having at the time, but it was obviously of tremendous significance. And from a human standpoint, that these people should be doing what they were doing."

"I stayed because I thought that was the place for a reporter to be."

Ike Will Seek Public Support

WASHINGTON (UP)—President Eisenhower will launch a major campaign to enlist public support behind his legislative program including his embattled budget, informed sources said today.

The campaign will take several directions including the President's weekly new conferences and a nationwide radio-television speech in the near future. His next news conference will be on Wednesday.

But the President has definitely made up his mind to speak out strongly in behalf of his program and budget at every opportunity—as many of his supporters in Congress have been urging.

Sen. Clifford P. Case, R-N. J., a strong Eisenhower supporter, said a nationwide presentation by the President of the "urgent necessity and reasonableness" of his legislative proposals and budget would be "irresistible."

But House Democratic Leader John W. McCormack, Mass., said when the President "goes to the people fighting for his budget, he will be fighting his own party."

McCormack said more Republicans than Democrats have voted against the President on budget items.

Eisenhower certainly faces an uphill fight. Many Democrats and Republicans in Congress are lustily swinging the economy axe under prodding from voters back home.

FINAL TRIBUTE PAID SENATOR BY HOME TOWN

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD TODAY FOR SENATOR JOE MCCARTHY

APPLETON, Wis. (UP)—Thousands of hometown friends paid last respects to Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy today in the 98-year-old little brick church he attended since he was a boy.

An estimated 25-30,000 persons filed through St. Mary's Catholic Church Monday night and today to view the controversial senator's body.

A solemn requiem high mass was sung for him this afternoon. McCarthy was buried late today with military honors in St. Mary's Cemetery beside his parents, Timothy and Bridget McCarthy.

More than 1,000 persons crowded the church and its basement for the final rites, and hundreds of others listened to the services over loudspeakers on the church lawn.

Services were conducted by the Rev. Adam M. Grill in the same little church where McCarthy, 48, was baptized Nov. 23, 1908—nine days after his birth.

Two other services were held Monday in the U. S. Senate and St. Matthews Church in Washington, D. C.

The body of the senator, who died last Thursday of hepatitis, was flown to Green Bay, Wis., after the services in Washington

Monday.

Tears glistened in the eyes of McCarthy's young widow, Mrs. Jean McCarthy, when she alighted from the plane.

McCarthy's body was placed in a hearse and autos containing a special congressional delegation came after her.

Sheriff Don Heinritz estimated that from 10,000 to 15,000 persons watched McCarthy's hearse as the cortege moved from Green Bay to Appleton.

May Ask Beck For Resignation

WASHINGTON (UP)—Teamsters Union leaders may ask Teamster President Dave Beck and two vice presidents to resign or "retire" as a result of AFL-CIO charges of corruption, informed sources said today.

The charges, presented the union Monday by the AFL-CIO Ethical Practices Committee, indicated the AFL-CIO ultimately will demand that the union either oust the three national officers and a number of local union officials or get out of the AFL-CIO.

The Teamster Executive Board including Beck requested and received "reasonable time" to prepare a reply to the charges. The committee at May 24 to hear it.

Beck was scheduled to make a return appearance Wednesday before the Senate Rackets Committee. He also faces "trial" May 20 before the full AFL-CIO Executive Council on charges that his conduct has brought the labor movement into disrepute.

The committee charged that Beck and Teamster Vice President Frank Brewster of Seattle, Wash., have used union funds for "personal purposes" and their official union positions "for personal profit or advantage."

The committee said the charges were based on disclosures by the Senate Rackets Committee, Beck's nationally-televized admission that he "borrowed" more than $300,000 of union funds without interest and on his use of the Fifth Amendment 117 times to avoid answering questions before the Senate committee.

The committee also charged Teamster Vice President Sidney Brennan of Minneapolis with "corrupt activities." He has been convicted of accepting money from an employer for alleged "strike breaking."

Finally, the committee indicted the entire leadership of the big union for their "apparent failure" to investigate or take any other action regarding the three national officers, a number of local officials in New York and Scranton, Pa., and Senate charges of "corruption and racketeering" in Brewster's West Coast division of the union.

Beck so far has not backed down from his announced intention to run for re-election at the union's September convention. Nor have the other two national officers announced any intention to quit their posts.

But several union officers, including Secretary-Treasurer John R. English, Vice Presidents William Lee of Chicago and Thomas Hickey of New York are understood to be prepared to do everything they can to keep the union within the AFL-CIO.

Play Safe With Side Suit

"Sorry if it seemed careless," Miss Win apologized, "but I couldn't afford to draw trumps."

Her partner was satisfied with the vulnerable slam, so he didn't complain about the failure to draw trumps. He thought that Miss Win should have made all 13 tricks, but he was quite wrong.

Opening lead—♣ J
West opened the jack of clubs, and Miss Win took the ace of clubs and the top spades to get rid of the losing club. She could then turn her attention to the red suits.

If she began by drawing three rounds of trumps, she would eventually lose two diamond tricks to West. This would cost her the vulnerable slam contract.

The correct play was to cash both top diamonds, give up a diamond in dummy, and then ruff a diamond in dummy. The plan was simple, but it needed careful handling.

LEADS FROM DUMMY
After cashing the top cards in the black suits, Miss Win led a low diamond from dummy. East followed suit, and Miss Win could safely play the ace.

It wouldn't do to lead the king of diamonds next. East would ruff, and South would still have a losing diamond.

Instead, Miss Win led a trump to dummy's ten. Now she could lead a second low diamond from dummy. If East discarded, declarer could take the king of diamonds.

As it happened, East ruffed the second diamond. This gave Miss Win the chance to play a low diamond instead of the king.

East returned a spade, and South ruffed. Miss Win next drew a second round of trumps. This drew all of the missing trumps, since East had ruffed with one of his trumps. Miss Win could now safely take the king of diamonds and ruff a diamond to establish the suit.

DAILY QUESTION
Partner deals and bids one no-trump. You hold: S J H A Q J 9 3 D K J 9 4 2 C 7 3. What do you say?

Answer: Bid three hearts. You want to reach game in a red suit, but you have no intention of inviting a slam.

timely tip for June brides and grooms: Have your honeymoon right in your own home. Here are just some of the advantages listed by Dr. John R.

Cavanagh, noted psychiatrist: Less chance of getting tired. Less chance of getting bored. It's cheaper, laddie.

Cavanagh, lecturer at Catholic and Georgetown universities, told a social hygiene society meeting Monday "The best advice which can be given to most couples concerning the honeymoon is to spend it at home." He said the honeymoon "may make or break a marriage." But, he said, too often the groom arrives at the altar exhausted after a big bachelors' party the previous night. Moreover, he said, the bride is probably just as exhausted from the weeks of preparation and parties before the wedding. Cavanagh said then they rush off to "some uncomfortable and expensive hotel" and frequently it's all a "disappointing experience."

He said with both of them in the shape they are in it might be just as well for them to stay home and get a good night's sleep. Then, he said, during the next few weeks they can get more accustomed to each other in a relaxed atmosphere.
