

MOTHER'S DAY WEEKEND AT UNIVERSITY

Many Highlights Await DPU Moms

Accuses Administration Of Creating Confusion

Mothers' Day makes a slightly premature appearance at DePauw University this weekend when approximately 1,000 mothers will visit the campus.

Rooms in motels, hotels and private homes—many reserved since Dad had his day on campus last fall—are booked almost solid for the traditional event which opens Friday on a five-prong front.

Competing for patronage of early arrivals will be shows by the swimming honorary Naiaid, Little Theatre production of "Look Homeward, Angel," and musical shows in Meharry Hall and the Art Center by the Men of Note, The Collegians, and the Madrigals.

The musical performances and the stage play are scheduled for repeat performances Saturday evening.

Saturday's daytime schedule calls for decision-making of major proportions.

The University's Air Force ROTC will step out at 10 a. m. for an awards review in Blackstock Stadium; Mortar Board plans to cap outstanding junior coeds at 11 a. m. in Meharry Hall; and one of 11 senior women will become May Queen at 1:30 p. m. in a pageant on the East College Lawn.

An innovation in this year's Mothers' Day pageant, at which the queen will be crowned, will be a brief speech by a DePauw mother, Mrs. J. Stanford Smith, Greenwich, Conn. Mrs. Smith is formerly of Greencastle and wife of General Electric's vice president for public relations.

Sports inclined parents may linger at the stadium for a tennis match between DePauw and Southern Illinois or watch the varsity track team tangle with Cincinnati.

Culinary treats to help visiting mothers forget their slaving over the hot stove include a Pancake breakfast Saturday, a buffet luncheon, and an "Old Fashioned Dinner" Saturday evening, all at the Student Union.

Candidates for May Queen honors are Joyce Dixon, Gary; Jeannie Englebright, Crown Point; Claudia Lloyd, Munster; Dianne Ling, Richmond; Carol Brown, St. Louis, Mo.; Elizabeth Mead, Geneva, Ill.; Marta Nordenholz, Elkhart, N. Y.; Nancy Rostig, Las Vegas, Nev.; Cathie Valeska, Elmwood Park, Ill.; and Marty Zaring, Cambridge, O.

Representing each of the campus' 11 major coed living units, the candidates will be narrowed to one by vote of all senior women.

Their appreciation for beauty whetted by the queen's coronation, art connoisseurs will get a glimpse at student artistic endeavors at a unique art

WASHINGTON UPI — Sen. John J. Williams, R-Del. Wednesday accused the Johnson administration of attempting to create confusion aimed at helping Sen. Thomas J. Dodd, D-Conn., escape tax liability for money he received from testimonials.

Williams said in a speech prepared for the Senate that officials of the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) had been "quietly approaching" some senators suggesting that present law may be "fuzzy" on the question of tax liability of funds received at testimonial dinners.

Williams said senators were being told that clarifying legislation might be needed. This, Williams said, is not true.

"I flatly refuse to be a part of any such backstage plan," Williams said. "There is no doubt in my mind but that the present law is perfectly clear and that all we need is the will to enforce it."

Williams recalled that associates of Dodd had said Dodd used some of more than $100,000 collected from testimonials for personal use but that the money was non-taxable since it was intended as personal gifts to the senator.

Williams charged that there is a deliberate plan by administration officials to "create confusion as to the effectiveness of existing law in the hope that they can get Congress to accept the promise that a loophole does exist and then proceed to rewrite legislation dealing with campaign contributions."

He added: "Once Congress rewrites the law, all past transactions are in effect legalized since our enactment of new legislation would be interpreted as the opinion of Congress that a loophole does exist in the present law and that present law does not impose a tax on these diverted funds."

SOUTHAMPTON, England—UPI—Two British journalists sailed aboard the liner United States Wednesday with a rowboat in which they hope to row 3,200 miles back to England from Cape Cod. "The first and only men to row across the Atlantic were two Norwegians who did it in 1866," said David Johnston, 34, who hopes to duplicate the feat with his partner John Hoare, 29. Their 15-foot-6 boat is designed along lifeboat lines. It has a radio, bunks and cooking facilities and costs $3,360.

Alan Buser, son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Buser, Roachdale, will be installed as Master Councilor of the Roachdale Chapter of DeMolay at 8:00 p.m. on Saturday, April 30th. Alan is a senior at Roachdale High School and enrolled as a freshman at Purdue University this fall.

Other officers to be installed by the Greencastle installing team in ceremonies at the Roachdale Masonic Hall include Senior Councilor, Paul Hill; Junior Councilor, Tom Doreff and Chaplain, Ronnie Snodgrass.

The public is cordially invited.

Kiwanians To Serve Breakfast

The seventh annual Mothers' Day breakfast sponsored by the Greencastle Kiwanis, will be held Sunday morning, May 1st, at the Ridpath School Cafeteria. Serving will begin at 8 and end at 11.

The public is invited to come and enjoy the breakfast which is prepared by club members. On the menu will be juice, eggs, hotcakes, sausage, toast, coffee, and milk.

This is the Kiwanis' one big fund-raising event each spring and has become a popular affair. Please attend and while you are enjoying a delicious breakfast you will also be helping the Kiwanis Club.

Dedicates Plaque

MAUTHAUSEN, Austria UPI—U.S. Ambassador to Austria James W. Riddleberger Wednesday dedicated a plaque to the memory of U.S. citizens who lost their lives in the Mauthausen concentration camp here during World War II.

A total of 34 U.S. citizens became victims of the Nazi regime in the Mauthausen camp during the last war.

Royal Birth

TEHERAN, Iran UPI—Empress Farah gave birth to her third child this morning. It was a boy, her second son.

The child was born at the imperial palace. The empress and her son were reported doing well.

5 Yanks Aboard Missing Airliner

LIMA, Peru UPI—Peruvian air force and civilian planes took off early today to search for an airliner lost in the towering Andes Mountains with 49 persons aboard, including 5 Americans and a Canadian.

The search had been suspended at nightfall Wednesday, several hours after the plane operated by Peru's Lansa Airline was reported missing on a flight from Lima to the ancient mountain city of Cuzco.

Although there was little doubt that the plane had crashed, no trace of wreckage had been found.

The airliner was last reported in the vicinity of Ayacucho, 200 miles southeast of Lima. Initial search efforts concentrated on the Andahuaylas area between Ayacucho and Cuzco.

The plane was piloted by William Jones of Miami. Four of its 43 passengers also were identified as Americans — Gerald Flynn, George Hoffman, Paul Bond and Peace Corpman Troy Ross (no hometowns).

Kappa Pi Art Auction Slated

On Saturday, the DePauw chapter of Kappa Pi, national art honorary fraternity, will have its annual art auction. This will be held in front of the Art Center at 3 p.m. It is part of DePauw's Mom's Day program and Greencastle citizens will be welcome to come.

The DePauw art students submit works to be auctioned and the proceeds are used to help pay for art shows, such as the annual Putnam County Art Show, and for student scholarships. There are many art works available at the auction in a variety of media, including drawing, painting, prints, sculpture, photography and ceramics, all at reasonable prices.

Judge Russell Clapp, as auctioneer, is an added attraction, and does an excellent job. In past years the auction has drawn a large crowd, and Kappa Pi hopes this year's auction will be even more successful.

Gator Poaching Causes Alarm

WASHINGTON UPI — The Interior Department alarmed at a $1 million-a-year alligator poaching racket, wants Congress to strengthen the laws to provide more protection for wildlife.

The department said Wednesday it had asked for legislation to extend coverage of the federal criminal code to every section of the nation, and to give game wardens authority to make arrests, search and seize property used illegally.

Alligator hides are in great demand for shoes and purses, the department noted, with hides of 5-6 feet selling for $6 a foot. These prices spur poachers to violate state laws aimed at protecting 'gators, now on the department's list of "endangered species."

Faubus Is Quitting

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. UPI—Gov. Orval E. Faubus, the nation's second longest-term state chief executive, made good Wednesday his promise to quit after 12 years of office.

Faubus, who surrounded Central High School with National Guardsmen in 1957 to become a symbol of southern resistance to racial desegregation, said March 21 he would not seek a seventh term. Politicians doubted him then.

But he made it official by failing to file for the July 26 Democratic primary election. Wednesday was the deadline.

Many Homeless Due To Flood

MONROE, Mich. UPI—Police and civil defense volunteers today patrolled sections of the Lake Erie shoreline where giant, gale-whipped waves kept an estimated 3,000 persons from their homes.

With continued forecasts for 40-mile-an-hour winds, authorities said there was little chance the flood waters would recede quickly.

A 100-mile stretch of the shore from Sandusky, Ohio, to the southern edge of the Detroit metropolitan area was battered with 12-foot waves Tuesday night and early Wednesday in what was said to be the worst Lake Erie storm in the area since 1952.

The Red Cross set up evacuation centers in high schools Wednesday, and hundreds of volunteers helped remove and fence the stranded families. Army and Navy personnel also were called in.

There was no panic during evacuation proceedings and injuries were few. Some families decided to stay in their homes despite the sea of muddy water.

Officials said it would be several days before any meaningful estimate of the damage could be made. Much of the damage was limited to boats and docks that were smashed by the high winds and waves.

Special Chapel For Students

A number of outstanding DePauw students will be honored tomorrow at 10 a. m. during Recognition Chapel in Meharry Hall.

Sharing the platform with the award winners will be Dr. Dwight Ling, assistant dean, who will deliver a short address on "Academic Slavery."

Ling's remarks and an extensive reduction in the number of awards are features of a new honors chapel format this year. Several awards previously made at this time will be made on a departmental basis or at other public occasions.

Among the presentations to be made tomorrow at the public chapel will be the Walker Cup to the outstanding senior, the Wood award to the outstanding junior; the best intramural athlete, the scholar-athlete, the Alpha Lambda Delta and Phi Beta Kappa book awards and certificates, AWS honor rings, and the tapping of junior men for Gold Key.

TRAIN, TRUCK GET TOGETHER ON CROSSING

Considerable property damage resulted when a Monon Railroad freight train and a truck loaded with shelled corn got together on the main street crossing in Cloverdale Monday. Fortunately, no one was hurt in the accident but it created a lot of excitement. The above picture was taken soon after the accident occurred.

Hamilton Acts On Cases Of Three Teenage Boys

Three boys, Cecil Gayheart, 19, Poland Route 2; Raymond Shepard, 17, Cloverdale, and a 15-year-old from Spencer, Route 2, were before Judge Francis N. Hamilton Wednesday.

Each was charged with being minors in possession of alcoholic beverages.

Gayheart and Shepard were arraigned in the Putnam Circuit Court and both pleaded guilty.

Gayheart was fined $25 and costs and his driver's license was restricted to driving only to and from work.

Shepard was fined $1 and costs.

The 15-year-old was in Juvenile Court and entered a plea of not guilty.

Judge Hamilton, however, found him guilty and placed him on probation to the Owen County Probation Officer.

The boy was ordered not to return to Putnam County unless accompanied by his parents.

He was also instructed to attend school regularly and not to associate with the other two boys.

Their court appearance was the result of a traffic accident last Saturday evening in front of the Waffle House, 1221 South Bloomington Street.

Lawrence Burk, Greencastle, Route 5, was painfully injured in the accident and was taken to the West 10th Street Veterans Hospital in Indianapolis.

State Trooper Jack Hanlon, of the Putnamville Post, was the investigating officer.

Cong Supply Center Is Destroyed

SAIGON UPI — U.S. Army troops swarmed through a Communist stronghold on the Cambodian border today and destroyed with flame throwers and high explosives one of the largest Viet Cong supply centers in South Viet Nam.

The supply dump containing food and uniforms and motorized sampans for transporting along the banks of a border river in the 1,000-yard buffer zone which is safe from saturation bombings by U.S. B52s for fear of hitting neutral Cambodia.

Army officers pointed across the river into Cambodia at chutes on the opposite banks used for loading sampans with rice. The supply dump was about 75 miles northwest of Saigon and marked one of the key crossing points for the Ho Chi Minh Trail from Cambodia into South Viet Nam.

Although Cambodia is nominally a neutralist country, it sympathizes with the Communists and is a haven for guerrillas fleeing military operations.

"The Communists had it real cozy here," the major told UPI photographer Steve Van Meeter who was on the scene.

The Primaries Are Important

Some people seem to have the idea that primary elections are not too important and that they will just wait and vote in the general election in November.

In this respect, they are wrong in the opinion of this newspaper.

The primaries give one an opportunity to cast their ballot for the candidate they believe the most qualified for the nomination they are seeking.

It is in the primaries that each individual has a choice in the various races in which there may be several hoping to win the nominations.

In the primary you can pick the candidate that you feel is the right candidate and thereby have the chance to vote for him in the Fall.

If you do not vote in the primary, then you have no other alternative but to vote for one of two candidates for each office on the Republican and Democrat tickets.

If the candidate you wanted does not appear on the November ballots, it is probably more your fault than his.

So exercise your voting prerogative in the May 3 primaries.

Go to the polls and vote. That is the duty and privilege of every adult American citizen.

Teenager's View A Local

(By Janet Staub)

Unfortunately teenagers are often criticized for their driving habits. Hardly ever are the good teenage drivers given a chance to show their "stuff." But for the 15th time the Jaycees are co-sponsoring a "Safe-Driving Auto Road-E-O" for teenagers. This group of ambitious (would you believe hardworking?) young men provide this opportunity to all licensed girl or boy drivers currently enrolled as a student in either a public or parochial high school. Also to be eligible for the many honors to be awarded the young drivers must not have turned 19 years of age before August 1, 1966. Not be married until after the national finals which will be held at the end of July or the first week in August, 1966. They should not have a pending charge of a moving violation and not have been convicted of such violation in the six months prior to the national finals.

A written test has been given in all of the county high schools and will be given again on Tuesday, May 3, at 4:15 p. m. in the Public Service building in our fair city to all the youth who are interested in competing for the honors.

Even if you aren't a teenager the Jaycees would be happy to let the general public view the skill tests to be given, May 7, on the Greencastle Senior High School parking lot.

BY THE WAY, Jaycees aren't eligible to compete in this function so maybe a teenager will win!

Cong Terrorist Hurls Grenade

SAIGON UPI—A Viet Cong terrorist tonight hurled a hand grenade at the headquarters of the U.S. Army's first logistical command motor pool. One American soldier was injured in the blast.

The grenade was thrown from a car driving past the motor pool. The terrorist escaped.

It was the latest in a series of terror bombings in Saigon during the past 4 hours. Wednesday a bomb was planted near a building where 50 South Korean laborers for an American construction firm were waiting for a ride to work.

The bomb killed seven Koreans and three Vietnamese and wounded 37 other Koreans. A few hours earlier a grenade was thrown at the home of the general commanding Korean forces in Viet Nam, wounding a guard.

Coffee Is Held By "Gold Ladies"

The "Gold Ladies" of the Putnam County Mental Health Association entertained at a coffee in the Methodist Student Center Wednesday morning. The purpose was to acquaint men and women with the volunteer services they perform in hospitals and nursing homes.

At 10:30 the group watched a special TV show "Learn and Serve Coffee" along with other groups throughout Indiana. Joe Brown, Executive Secretary of Indiana Mental Health Association, moderated an interesting panel discussion.

Gold Ladies help bridge the gap between home and help for mentally ill. Often they take the patient to the hospital or accompany the enforcement officers doing so. The "adopt a patient" plan was explained. A good person to person relationship is built up through letters and visits. Often this gives the "will" to get well to patients. More volunteers are needed to help with the various programs. The Mental Health Fund Drive with Bob Morrison as chairman will be during the month of May. When you contribute as little as $1.00 you become a member-at-large. If you desire to be a volunteer helper, tell your solicitor.

Mrs. Robert McCullough was hostess to the Boston Club on Monday evening, April 25.

Mrs. O. D. McCullough, club president, presided, and welcomed the members and their guests to share in the club tradition of guest night.

Mrs. A. L. Meredith, who was in charge of the musical program, presented Mrs. Jameson Jones, who delighted her audience by singing the following selection:

Handel's "Ombra mai fu" from the opera "Serse," Kathleen Mannings' "Shoes," and two American folk songs arranged by Kathleen Davis.

"He's Got 'Away; The Soldier from Kentucky. She was accompanied by Mrs. Meredith.

Mrs. Benjamin Franklin, a member of the program committee, presented the guest speaker, Mrs. John Boyd, by reciting an appropriate, original verse.

Mrs. Boyd, fascinated the group as she regaled her observations of New Zealand and Australia, where she has visited recently.

New Zealand is a British Commonwealth comprised of two islands whose size is comparable to the state of Colorado. Its climate is mild and delightful. The Maoris are people who are native to New Zealand and are of polynesian origin.

The inhabitants of New Zealand cherish the established English values, and traditions. They possess great pride in their own culture, and feel strong loyalty toward the English Queen. They hold fast to wholesome ways of life, and practice a highly socialized economy.

New Zealand is a beautiful, pastoral countryside which produces sheep, cattle, fruit, and grain. It can be recommended as a delightful country for tourists.

New Zealand's needs include the development of industries, which would require more people, as well as money.

These islands are important to the United States due to their strategic position in the South Pacific, as they supply the avenue which leads to Antarctica.

Australia is the approximate size of continental United States, with a relatively small population, centralized in a few large cities. The native Aborigines and the animals are different to those found in any other part of the world. A visit to the interior of Australia is rewarding since it has a charm and scenery which makes it an interesting area.

Australia has potentialities and the promise of a future when it is developed. Its location is one of great peril for free people in uncertain times.

Mrs. Boyd shared a graphic display of maps, pictures and booklets, as well as some unique articles which were purchased during her trip.

Mrs. L. E. Sheridan invited members to the Boston Club picnic to be held at her home in June.

Delicious refreshments were served from a beautifully appointed dining table during the social hour. The assistant hostesses were Mrs. Ross Runyan, Mrs. John See, Mrs. John Poor, and Mrs. Charles Hymer.

Explosion Is Fatal To Three

CHARLESTON, UPI—Authorities held little hope today of finding the bodies of three men missing and presumed dead in a violent explosion which ripped a storage magazine Wednesday at the Army ammunition plant near here.

The blast rocked the entire 11,000-acre installation which produces shells and gunpowder for the Viet Nam war, and injured some 45 persons. Two of the injured were admitted to Clark County Memorial Hospital at Jeffersonville.

Authorities said it was miraculous that no more of the some 2,000 employees on the site at the time of the blast were injured.

Maj. William G. Lawhead, commander of the plant, ordered the relatives of the three missing men notified. He identified them as Dale E. Lord, 30, the father of five, and Adair Hayes, 53 father of four, both of Charleston, and William C. Zimbro, 27, a Sellersburg bachelor.

Lawhead said the cause of the blast might never be learned, adding the missing men were a powder supply team which went to the 80-foot-long concrete bunker to get mortar propellant.

He said it was not known whether the men were inside the bunker when it was blasted apart.

Rocky Signs Divorce Bill

ALBANY UPI—Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, who was divorced in an out-of-state action in 1962, Wednesday night signed New York's first major divorce reform bill in 179 years.

The bill ends New York's status as the last state in the union to recognize marital infidelity as the only grounds for divorce and gives it instead one of the most liberal statutes in the nation. Most of the provisions will not take effect until Sept. 1, 1967, however.

Rockefeller, who was divorced by his first wife, Mrs. Mary Clark Rockefeller, in Reno, Nev., signed the bill without comment at Albany airport before catching a flight to New York City. The governor's present wife, Mrs. Margaretta Murphy (Happy) Rockefeller, had received her divorce in Idaho.

It took less than 10 hours for Rockefeller and the state legislature to overhaul the stringent old law, which was framed by Alexander Hamilton and passed in 1787.

General Motors Reports Income

NEW YORK UPI—General Motors Corporation Wednesday announced a first quarter net income of $549 million, the second most lucrative first quarter earnings in the giant firm's history.

Board Chairman Frederic G. Donner and President James M. Roche, making the announcement, said GM had sold 1,978,000 vehicles during this year's first quarter, a figure exceeded only by the corporation's record sales in 1965.

First quarter earnings per common share of stock totaled $2.07, compared with $2.23 per share for the 1965 first quarter. Common stock dividends amounted to $0.85, an increase from $0.75 per share last year at this time.

Boy Hangs Self

INDIANAPOLIS UPI—Michael David Nichols, 15, son of Pike Twp. Volunteer Fire Dept. Chief John H. Nichols, was found hanged in the garage of the family home.

Authorities ruled death suicide and said the boy may have been depressed because of poor grades. The act apparently occurred a few minutes after the boy left a school bus after talking a friend "I'm so tired I think I could die."

Check the design of lace before cutting a pattern. If it consists of regular repeats it should be matched at seams as one matches stripes or plaids.

Withdrawal Study

PARIS UPI—The National Assembly has appointed a two-man investigating committee to study the effect on the nation's economy of the withdrawal of U. S. bases from France.

President Charles de Gaulle has ordered the 26,000 American troops out of France by April 1, 1967. Estimates as to the cost of the withdrawal to the French economy have run as high as $20 million.

Film Gets Award

PARIS UPI—The American film "Rapture" won the International Women's Cinema Grand Prix Wednesday. Thirteen French movie actresses were supported to vote on the best film of the year, but three did not show up and the other ten started arguing about whether the absentees were entitled to vote by mail. Before the shouting had died, three more of the jurists walked out, and those that were left voted for "Rapture."

of the insurance department of the Indiana University school of business, died Wednesday of a heart attack in his home.

No Jury Would Convict This Outraged Killer
By Alfred Sheinwold

"Can't anybody tell me how the last hand was played?" Sherlock Holmes asked as he stood behind the lifeless body of Lord Moneybags. Three horrified players shook their heads dumbly, but the butler spoke up.

His Lordship led two top spades, the butler related. "Declarer ruffed with the king of hearts, led a heart to dummy's nine and returned a diamond for a finesse. His Lordship won and returned the jack of spades."

"The deuce he did, Holmes snapped.

"No, sir, the jack he did," the butler corrected the great detective. "Declarer ruffed with the ace of trumps and led the jack of trumps to dummy's queen. He continued with the ten of trumps, discarding the jack of clubs, and led the nine of diamonds for a finesse. When that held he took another diamond finesse and claimed the rest with high cards."

CASE IS SOLVED
Holmes turned to Dr. Watson. "The butler did it," he announced. "However, no jury will convict him."

"There were two bridge players in that room declarer and the butler. The others were just pushing cards around," Holmes explained. "Declarer gained by the blunder, so he would not have killed Moneybags. But the butler was outraged by the horrible play. Obviously he was the murderer."

It took Dr. Watson a week to discover the blunder. Lord Moneybags could have saved the contract (and his life) by returning a trump instead of the jack of spades. South needs the extra ruff and cannot get it for himself because there are no side entries to dummy.

The moral is clear. Avoid bad plays—and butlers.

DAILY QUESTION
Partner opens with 2NT, and the next player passes. You hold: S-8 7 4 3; H-Q 10 9; D-9 4 3; C-7 6 2. What do you say?

Answer: Pass. You need about 4 points to respond to 2 NT, and you have only 2 points in this hand.

WALL STREET CHATTER

NEW YORK UPI—Bache & Co. says that, aside from the reduced volume, the market continues to perform in an erratic fashion with glamour issues taking the initiative and blue chips lagging behind. The Dow Jones industrials also are moving in a narrow range.

The company feels it will be difficult to generate any upside momentum in "quality" issues until they show an improved earnings growth potential. A look at the recent crop of earnings reports shows the "glamour" issues had significant improvement while basic industries stayed even or even slipped below last year's earnings.

Goodbody & Co. says that continuation of the first quarter's annual rate of advance in gross national product and gain in consumer durables spending, cannot be expected. But the economy still looks sound for the next six months, the analyst adds. The company believes there still are many quality issues on the list available at a good price-earnings ratio.

Thomson & McKimmon points out that the Dow Jones industrial average is only a few points higher than last year's level, which may surprise many traders who are involved in a day-to-day study of the market. The analyst feels that the 1965 market anticipated increased profit gains and now that these gains have been achieved and the duplication of such growth becomes increasingly difficult, the current level of the Dow Jones is understood more clearly.

The Lighter Side

WASHINGTON UPI—Sallie Ann Robbins, an enterprising young woman of my acquaintance, has brought forth a book that fulfills a great need in our society.

It is called "See America Free." Or, as it might be subtitled, "How I Learned To Stop Worrying About Bankruptcy and Take a Two-Week Vacation Without Starving The Other 50."

In other words, Sallie Ann has produced a guidebook for freeloaders. And not a minute too soon.

WINGBACK BROGUE
In Jarman's famous Cordoshell leather

Jarman's newest version of the classic wingback brogue is fashioned of rich Cordoshell upper leather (looks and feels like cordovan, costs much less). It has a strong polymeric sole for long wear. Style-wise, strength-wise, and price-wise, this is a shoe you will appreciate. Come in and try a pair.

As I feel that I cannot fulfill the duties of my office and visit with voters personally, I sincerely ask for your support through the medium of this advertisement.

vacation hanging over our heads. Vacations have become almost as inevitable as death and taxes. But if you start planning now, you can get through the thing with a minimum of financial catastrophes.

You can, for instance, save $1 by not buying Sallie Ann's book. Sallie Ann might not like that, but I always say that if you're going to freeload you might as well get all the way.

Therefore, I have picked out some of the 473 free attractions that happened to appeal to me and arranged them into a suggested tour. Just clip this column and keep it in your hat-bag until your vacation rolls around and you will be all set.

We begin our tour by flying down to St. Petersburg, Fla., where, Sallie Ann tells us, newspapers are given away free any day the sun doesn't shine.

That only happens a few times each year, but I think it is worth the chance. Then we fly out to San Francisco where we can make a free visit to a Chinese fortune cookie bakery.

The next stop is Denver, Colo., which affords an opportunity to attend a sheep auction. Then on the Savannah, Ga., to watch how a company there makes paper bags.

Sallie Ann even found something free in Las Vegas. She reports that "a plush Nevada resort hotel and gambling casino takes visitors behind the scenes to the slot machine repair department."

That should be very educational. Perhaps we will learn the difference between repairing a slot machine and fixing a slot machine.

While in the neighborhood, and because this flying around is getting pretty expensive, we drop over to Las Cruces, N. M., to visit the world's largest peach orchard.

The tour winds up in New York where we can see post office handwriting experts "trying to decipher illegible addresses."

If all of this doesn't quench your thirst for thrills and excitement, I recommend a visit to Merkel, Tex., my old hometown. Once a week, without charge, you can watch the produce truck unloading at Carson's Grocery.

A small bedroom will look larger if the bedspread is a solid color and the same color as the walls.

An Individual Project Working Up A Schedule

By ROBERTA ROESCH
 "Do you have a basic schedule that will fit the life of a working mother?" a reader asks.

"If you do, please send me a copy, because I could certainly use it."

Many people could use it—if such a thing existed. But the truth is that a schedule that fits one woman is not suitable for the next, any more than a size 9 dress could fit every woman who works.

Do-It-Yourself Project

The schedule that is right for you is a "Trial and Error" and "Do It Yourself" project that you work out for the shape of your life by trying it on for size many times.

One working mother, for instance, who runs a suburban art shop, followed a "Trial and Error" plan till she worked out her own daily routine.

"I get up every morning at 7:30," she told me, "and between then and the time I open my shop at 10:00, I get my husband and children off for the day and do whatever housework I can.

"From 10:00 on, I handle the shop alone until my husband comes in at 5:45 to help me close it at 6:00. Then we go home together to prepare dinner and spend time with the children.

Evening Chores

"After dinner, I spend more time with the children or work on odds and ends around the house until my son and daughter go to bed at 10:00 p. m.

"While the children are up, I usually try to organize the house so things will run smoothly in the morning. For example, I set the table for breakfast and get the coffee ready to turn on.

"I also pack lunches and make sure that everyone has clothes, books, homework and other necessities ready for the next day. And I always try to tidy up the living room just before I go to bed, so it won't look like the night before when I get up in the morning.

"Once the children are in bed,

Plan Schedule For Home And Job That Isn't Too Confusing
 I relax until 11:00. Then I get my 'second wind' and start working on a project for the shop until I retire myself sometime after midnight."

As we said, one woman's schedule is seldom right for the next — and not everyone can come up with a "second wind" at 11:00 at night.

But you can find a schedule that will fit your life for both your job and your home if you:

- (1) Work it out by "Trial and Error" until it suits you. Breathing Space
- (2) Allow enough flexibility for a little breathing space.
- (3) Don't get sick with frustration if things don't go according to plan.
- (4) Remember every now and then that schedules are made to be broken as much as they are made to be kept.

British Princess Suffers Injury

LONDON UPI — Princess Anne, 15-year-old daughter of Queen Elizabeth, was thrown from her horse while riding to hounds and broke her nose, a Buckingham Palace spokesman said Wednesday.

The spokesman said the princess took a tumble at a fence while following the Oxford University drag hounds on Tuesday. The pack does not hunt animals but follows a trail left or "dragged" by someone earlier.

Like her mother, the princess is a keen horsewoman and has won several prizes at public horse shows.

The princess had no strapping or plaster on her nose when she left London Airport early Wednesday with her mother by plane to spend three days at the royal country estate at Sandringham in eastern England.

A palace spokesman said Anne would go to a nursing home for treatment after she returns from Sandringham.

The princess is due to go back to Benenden girls boarding school in southern England next week for the start of the summer term.

To Hold Maneuvers

PARIS UPI — Three West German infantry and armored brigades will hold maneuvers this summer in central France, French military sources said today.

The brigades, each numbering about 3,500 men, will begin the maneuvers July 28 and complete them Sept. 29. The exercises are being held under the terms of a 1963 Franco-German military cooperation treaty.

Damage Suit Filed By Dobich Trustees

INDIANAPOLIS UPI — The trustee for the bankrupt Dobich Securities Corp. filed a $533,000 damage suit Wednesday in Federal Court against Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner Smith, Inc., which charged violation of federal regulations on securities sales.

Donald W. Buttrey's suit against the stockbroker firm was filed in connection with the bankruptcy of the Dobich firm four days after Michael Dobich, young head of the company, was killed in a helicopter crash last July 10. His death and the resultant bankruptcy disclosed that hundreds of persons failed to receive shares of stock in Midwestern United Life Insurance Co. for which they had paid nearly $3 million to Dobich and his agents.

Buttrey sought to recover $515,000 which he said represented $460,000 in speculative losses in the Dobich account with Merrill Lynch and $55,000 in commission paid during the same period to Merrill Lynch. He also sought $18,000 on an allegation that Merrill Lynch failed to adhere to federal Reserve Board regulations which require any customer to pay for securities within seven days after purchase.

Six counts implied that Merrill Lynch aided and abetted Dobich in his stock transactions, one charging that the firm was guilty of illegal "churning," a practice whereby brokers create artificially high numbers of transactions in order to generate commissions.

Chinese Reds To Explode A-Device

WASHINGTON UPI — Communist China is expected to explode another nuclear device—her third in less than 18 months—"within a few weeks," U.S. officials said today.

America is advising a number of Asian and European allies of the anticipated blast in an attempt to take some of the edge off the propaganda effect of another success in Peking's drive to become a major nuclear power.

U. S. officials said information received during the past week indicated that preparations are virtually complete for the explosion. They emphasized, however, that weather conditions at the Sinkiang Province testing ground in northwest China could delay the test for two or three weeks.

The United States predicted the first two Chinese atomic tests—on Oct. 16, 1964, and May 14, 1965—with considerable accuracy. The 1965 test apparently was delayed two or three weeks by weather conditions.

Tough Safety Laws Urged

WASHINGTON UPI—President James R. Hoffa of the Teamsters Union urged Congress Wednesday to pass tough traffic safety legislation embracing new and used trucks as well as cars.

"You can pass all of the so-called good-will legislation sought by the industry and still you will have accomplished nothing," he told the House Commerce Committee.

Committee Chairman Harley O. Staggers, D-W. Va., commented, "I am happy to see you advocating strong, mandatory regulations."

Hoffa recommended mandatory federal safety standards for all vehicles. He said there were devices that could make trucks substantially safer. He cited one to prevent jackknifing, and another which would halt the vehicle automatically if the driver falls asleep and his hand drops from the wheel.

Cloverdale Hi-Lites

By Nancy Barker

We had a track meet at Edgewood on April 25. It was a three-way meet with Edgewood, Shawswick and Cloverdale. April 26 the Jr. High had a track meet here with Greencastle. Students attended the county track meet on April 28. Students are filling out pre-enrollment papers for next year. This is quite a change for the eighth grade students, because they get to select some of the subjects they want to take next year.

The courses which we tentatively plan to add to our curriculum for the 1966-67 school year are: Shop for grades 7-12, Art for grades 7-12; Spanish or French for grades 9-12. Of-ice practice may be taken in place of typing II or shorthand II although typing II and shorthand II will still be offered.

It is highly recommended that students carry five solid subjects during the 1966-67 year. Students have five curriculum plans which they may follow, they are: College preparatory or Academic curriculum, Commercial curriculum, Practical arts curriculum, Fine arts curriculum, and General curriculum.

Seniors are having play practice almost every night in preparation for their play on May 13. The cast has been announced. They are: Mrs. Sarah Wilkins, Janice Jordan; Betsy Selig, Linda Walker; Mimi Van

Cloverdale Concert Band attended the Band Contest at Terre Haute on April 16. I'm very proud to announce the Band received a first place.

Foreign News Commentary

By Phil Newsom

UPI Foreign News Analyst

When the pushing, shoving and cheering was over in Mexico City, President Johnson reportedly turned to an aid with the remark, "who said we couldn't go to Latin America?"

It was indeed a far cry from the rotten eggs which greeted Sen. Robert Kennedy in Concepcion, Chile, last December or the spit in the face received by Secretary of State Dean Rusk in Montevideo in November.

But this was Mexico which in 55 years of continuing revolution has become the stablest major state in Latin America and one whose growth rate in the coming year is expected to equal or surpass the record 10 per cent set in 1964.

And by mutual consent Johnson and Mexican President Gustavo Diaz Ordaz avoided the two major issues dividing them—Mexico's continuing diplomatic relations with Communist Cuba and her refusal to support intervention in the Dominican Republic.

Standing in a small park beside a statue of Abraham Lincoln, a U. S. gift to Mexico, the U. S. President issued a major policy statement on a project which has been somewhat less successful.

This involved a pledge of continued all-out U. S. support for the Alliance For Progress and endorsement of an Argentine proposal for a heads-of-state meeting to pump new energy into the five-year-old project designed to bring a new life to more than 200 million Latin Americans through economic and social reforms. Channelling its efforts through the Organization of American States, the United States annually pumps $1 billion in Alliance funds into the Latin American economy.

Under the plan as outlined originally by the late President Kennedy in 1961, another $1 billion annually was to come from other governments and from private investors for a 10-year total of $20 billion.

But private investment has lagged and for 1965 production of goods and services increased by only 2.5 per cent. Agriculture barely kept up with the region's population increase, the largest in the world.

Beginning in November three major attempts have been made to assess not only the workings of the Alliance For Progress but also inter-American relations in the light of changing conditions.

In November in Rio de Janeiro, the United States with help from Brazil sought unsuccessfully for approval of a hemispheric peace force to deal with such situations as the Dominican Republic.

In March, at Buenos Aires, during a review of the five years of the Alliance For Progress, Argentine President Arturo U. Illia charged that the alliance suffered from political anemia.

Concluded on April 1 in Panama was a conference to draw up changes in the charter of the organization of American States. It also reflected growing disenchantment with U. S. policy, notably the strings on U. S. aid and restrictions against basic Latin American exports to the United States.

These are problems not likely to be talked away at any heads of state conference.

Violent Weather In Many Areas

Hammering thunders torn a loosed flash floods in the Dallas area today, drowning at least five persons. Capricious spring weather spread elsewhere in the form of tornadoes, snow and drenching rain.

Water ran five feet deep through the streets of Richardson, Tex., early today and police rescued scores of motorists from their trapped cars in North Dallas. In addition to the five dead reported by Dallas police, two persons were missing.

Dozens of tornadoes spun across the southern plains and parts of the Midwest during the night. Funnell clouds were sighted near Denton, Denison, Mineral Wells and Decatur in Texas.

Several farm homes and barns were damaged when a tornado touched down near Coleman, Okla., 125 miles southeast of Oklahoma City. Another tornado was reported at Granite City, Ill.

Telephone operators at Paris, Tex. were forced to hunt numbers in the dark or with flashlights when 20 mile-an-hour winds knocked out a power transformer.

A snow storm over the north central states dumped two inches of snow in six hours at Bemidji and Alexandria, Minn., and at Fargo and Grand Forks, N. D.

Chinese Fighting With Viet Cong

TARENTUM, Pa. UPI—A letter from a GI killed in Viet Nam reports that Chinese troops have been fighting at the side of Viet Cong forces.

The letter from Sgt. Robert I. Adams to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Adams of Tarentum, was written March 7. Sgt. Adams was killed April 17.

"Well, we just came off a rescue mission," the letter said. "The Viet Cong attacked an artillery outpost and the men there had to fire point-blank at the enemy."

"We counted 134 dead—and all were Chinese—not Vietnamese."

"All of their weapons were from China and every one of them was over six-foot-tall."

"So much for the war stories," the letter said. "How is everyone at home?"

The letter was written from Phuoc Vinh, a small Army base camp about 40 miles north of Saigon.

The parents said their son had been awarded the Purple Heart last December after he was wounded by a "pungi stake," a sharp bamboo stick tipped with poison and imbedded in the ground by the enemy.

"We only found out about it later—it was like Bob, never to tell us if he was wounded or whether it was serious or not," Mrs. Adams said. "It was only through his letters that we knew what was going on and how he was."

SCHENECTADY, N. Y. UPI—Nature's best effort seldom exceeds 100 degrees below zero temperatures.

But scientists, including some working here for General Electric, have come within one degree of absolute zero—a frigid minus 460 degrees Fahrenheit.

BUSINESS HIGHLIGHTS

NEW YORK UPI—The nation's two leading stock exchanges raised to $2,000 from 1,000 the minimum amount an investor or speculator must put up to maintain a margin account. The move is aimed at reducing the number of small speculators in a market whose wide swings and big volume in recent weeks has brought warnings from both the New York and America Stock exchanges.

NEW YORK—Both the New York and American Stock exchanges announced they will introduce this summer computerized stock indicators based on all listed stocks. The Amex indicator will start June 1, that of the big board later.

WASHINGTON—The cost of living rose four-tenths of a percentage point in March to 112 per cent of the 1957-59 average, the Labor Department said. The department said it expects a further advance in April.

NEW YORK — Higher net earnings and revenues were reported by American Airlines Inc. for the quarter ended March 31. Revenues were $149.4 million, compared to $129.9 million for the comparable period a year ago. Net income was $3.6 million or 41 cents a share as against year ago figures of $2.3 million of 27 cents a share.

Fined For Ride

LONDON UPI—A man and his disabled wife were fined $44.80 Wednesday for riding together in a motorized, one-seat wheelchair.

Dick and Annie Asbell Win Jaycee Road Rally

Dick and Annie Asbell captured first and Betty Brummett a and Bobbie Judy taking the runner-up spot as the Greencastle Jaycees held their third annual Road Rally Sunday, April 24th. Registration began at 11:30 and by the time the first car left here were 28 cars entered. The first car left the starting point at 12:30 and each other contestant followed at two minute intervals.

The Rally took place in Putnam, Parke and Montgomery Counties. The first check point was at the store in Mansfield with Jeff Bish doing the job of checking them through. At the second stop (City Park in Rockville) the Jaycees had soft drinks for the drivers. Joe Kerr and Jim McCarter were in charge of checking them through this point.

Traveling on through beautiful Parke County the next stop brought the contestants to the Greene Twp. School. At this point was Danny Duell with his stop sign to keep them on the right course. After going

Indians Lose Doubleheader

TULSA, Okla. UPI—The Indianapolis Indians lost their bid to gain a 500 percentage in Pacific Coast League baseball action Wednesday night by dropping a doubleheader to Tulsa, 10-2 and 3-1.

The Oilers used sharp base running and hot bats to trample the Indians, with Lefty Clint Stark getting his first win in the opener thanks to a six-run outburst in the third inning which included a three-run homer by Ed Spiezio and a two-run blast by Bobby Tolan.

Tolan scored from third on a double-steal in the nightcap for the first Tulsa run, with the game-clinching tallies coming in the seventh on doubles by Wait Williams and Ted Savage and a single by Bobby Pfeil.

Reliever Lou Vickery took the loss in the first game and Bill Fischer was tabbed for the loss in the second contest.

Rochester To Meet Cleveland Saturday

TORONTO UPI — The Rochester Americans, having disposed of Quebec for the second straight year, will meet the Cleveland Barons here Saturday night in the opening game of the best-of-seven finals of the American Hockey League playoffs.

Rochester, which went on to win the Calder Cup last year after knocking off the Aces in the semifinals, eliminated Quebec once again Wednesday night with a 6-3 victory. The Americans thus won the best-of-seven semis, four games to two.

"Boy Wonder" Sutton On Way to Top in L.A. Lineup

By Joe Gergen
UPI Sports Writer

One Sutton, unlike Robin, is not a "boy wonder" who isn't going to settle for second billing.

Given the chance to start behind three of the most respected pitchers in the major leagues, the 21-year-old Sutton is crowding his way into the Los Angeles Dodgers' spotlight with some brilliant twirling.

Sutton, who is known around the Los Angeles area as the "boy wonder" because he is playing only his second season of professional baseball, continued to impress manager Walter Alton and the rest of the National League Wednesday night by cooling off the hot Atlanta Braves 4-1 with a five-hitter.

Although his record with the light-hitting Dodgers is only 2-2, Sutton has compiled a glittering 2.32 earned run average in 31 innings and has struck out 27. He fanned 10 Atlanta batters and blanked the brawny Braves on four hits until Hank Aaron homered in the ninth.

Dave Giusti set down the St. Louis Cardinals on just three hits to give Houston a 3-1 victory and the Cincinnati Reds battered the slumping San Francisco Giants 8-6 in the only other game played in the senior circuit. Pittsburgh at Chicago and New York at Philadelphia were rained out.

Chicago edged Boston 5-6 and the Washington Senators blanked the last-place New York Yankees 2-0 in the only American League action. Three junior circuit games—Kansas City at Detroit, Minnesota at Baltimore and California at Cleveland—were postponed.

The Dodgers battered four Atlanta hurlers for 14 hits. Matury Wills, out of the lineup for four days with a pulled

AJBC Members To Participate In Tournament

All AJBC members are invited to participate in the annual Junior and Adult Bowling Tournament to be held Saturday, April 30th. The tournament will be conducted during regularly scheduled leagues.

Each junior bowler must obtain an adult to bowl with them. Averages of the current season will be used. If an adult has not bowled this season, then an average and handicap will be established during the tournament based on number of games bowled.

Cost of bowling will be 70c for Bantams, $1.00 for Juniors and Seniors, and 45c per game for adults. Trophies, furnished by Varsity Lanes, will be awarded to first place boy and girl in Bantam Division and first place boy and girl in Junior-Senior Division. (No awards are given to adults. Only our thanks for making the tournament possible.) The trophies will be presented to the winners at the Putnam County Junior Bowling banquet.

Religion In America

By Louis Cassels

By United Press International

It's a rare churchgoer who doesn't occasionally feel a close kinship with Eutychus.

Eutychus, you may recall, was a Greek youth who won a place in the Bible Acts 20:7-12 by falling asleep and tumbling from a balcony during a long-winded sermon by the apostle Paul.

Eutychus might never have achieved red-faced immortality had he been able to read a newly-published paperback entitled "A Listener's Guide to Preaching" Abingdon Press.

The author, the Rev. Dr. William D. Thompson, is professionally engaged in teaching preachers how to preach. He is associate professor of homiletics at Eastern Baptist Theological Seminary in Philadelphia.

In the line of duty, Dr. Thompson listens to at least six practice sermons a week. No one needs to tell him that preachers sometimes have very little to say, and that they often take an inordinately long time to say it.

But communication is a two-way affair. If it is to succeed, some effort must be put forth by the listener as well as by the speaker. Dr. Thompson contends there is no sermon so dull that the men in the pew can't get something out of it if he accepts his own responsibility for "careful, creative listening."

The first step toward creative listening, he says, is to clear your mind of certain widespread, misconceptions about what a sermon is supposed to be. A sermon is not primarily intended to be a commentary on current events, a Biblical lecture, or a lesson in Christian living. It may include any or all of those elements, but they are secondary to its basic purpose, which is to proclaim the word of God that has been expressed in Jesus Christ.

"Unless you confront the living Christ in the sermon and reorder your life because you sense His claim on you," says Dr. Thompson, "you have simply heard some good advice from a nice man." True preaching is not a man talking about God but an event in which God reveals himself through the operation of His Holy Spirit, in the heart of the listener no less than in the worst of the speaker.

Even if you recognize all of this, however, you may find your attention wandering and your eyes glazing over during a sermon. It may help you to know that the human mind is capable of absorbing information aurally about three times intelligibly. Few people can speak faster than 200 words a minute, but many have "listening speeds" as high as 600 or 700 words a minute.

Instead of trying to slow your thinking to the space of the speaker's voice, Dr. Thompson suggests using the "space time" to reflect on the content of the sermon. One useful technique is to concentrate on trying to pinpoint—and express in one sentence of your own—the main idea which you think the preacher is trying to get across. Then you can outline in your mind his or her supporting arguments as they unfold. Or you can anticipate what his next point will be.

If the main idea of the sermon doesn't seem to have any immediate relevance to your own life, Dr. Thompson suggests, listen for something else—it may be a verse of scripture, an illustration, a line of poetry, or just a random phrase of the sermon—that does hit home. If you listen closely, there'll nearly always be something to chew on, even in the worst sermon.

In applying the insights of a sermon to concrete situations, however, remember what Jesus said about getting the plank out of your own eye before trying to remove the splinter from your friend's eye.

"To discern correctly and with insight the things God wants at say to the man in the next pew or to the church across town doesn't count as creative listening," says Dr. Thompson. "It is YOU God is trying to get through to."

Hollywood UPI Who do you boo and hiss these days in the movies—heroes or villains?

According to producer-director Bill Castle you're in trouble if you cheer the hero, and you're really "with it" if you root for the villain.

Castle should know. His horror movies are cleaning up because his heavies are the darlings of the public.

"Humor is the frosting on the gore," says Castle, a jolly white haired man who could play Santa Claus with a little makeup and a false beard.

"Evil itself is a thing of the past in movies. But villains like 'Goldfinger' and those comic heavies on the 'Batman' have become popular because there's a little of the villain in all of us.

"Our society is topsy-turvy. The old virtues are gone and we've become a nation of villains. Evil is dirty. No one can endorse it. But villainy can be fun—take the James Bond heavies for example."

In Castle's latest shocker, "Let's Kill Uncle," the uncle commits a murder off screen and lives to tell about it in the end. If he proves to be a popular character the producer will star him again in a sequel.

Another reason for the popularity of villains, according to Castle, is the murderous streak in heroes.

"Today's good guy shoots to kill. In the old days the heroes were astonishingly good marksmen, shooting the guns, knives, dirks and hatchets right out of the bad guys' hands. No more. Now they aim for the heart. And inasmuch as the villain is on the receiving end it is only proper that he be offered a certain amount of sympathy.

Pension Retirement Laws Unfair To Women — Tipton

ELDEN C. TIPTON

A man and his wife, along with being partners in marriage, are also business partners, whether the man works in a factory or is a professional man or farmer—his wife is his business partner. He toils at his daily labor while she keeps up her end of the partnership by caring for the children, keeping house, cooking and her other numerous chores... they are partners in living.

Most states have recognized this partnership by enacting community property laws. However, there is one glaring oversight!

Social Security income and pensions are predicated on his salary. If the woman should become widowed it's as though her husband was fired from his job. The income from Social Security and pensions is not under our present laws, fair to widows. She is treated more like a dependent than a partner. If nominated and elected, this is just one of the injustices I will fight in Washington.

WASHINGTON UPI — The Agriculture Department considers U. S. carryover stocks of farm commodities to be at manageable levels because of export and acreage diversion programs during the past five years.

The agricultural surpluses five years ago were among the department's big concerns. This July the wheat carryover will be nearly 57 per cent lower than it was in July, 1961.

The feed grain carryover on Oct. 1 will be 34 per cent lower than in 1961.

The department's Economic Research Service said exports alone would not have brought about the sharp cut in the feed grain carryover from 85 million tons to 56 millions tons, nor the cut in the wheat carryover from 1.41 billion bushels to 610 million bushels.

ERS said that even with the same export level, total production from harvested and diverted acreage would have pushed feed grain stocks to 333 million tons by this year, and wheat stocks to more than 1.6 billion bushels.

The ERS projections were based on two assumptions: That yields on the acreage diverted would have been only 90 per cent of those obtained from the acres harvested; that prices for both wheat and feed grains would have remained at the same levels as in the 1961-65 period.

Department economists believe that feed grain stocks this coming October—the beginning of the feed grain marketing year—will be more than adequate for all demands. For wheat, stocks on July 1 will have been reduced to a volume considered adequate as a national reserve.

Mobilization by Computer
PHOENIX, Ariz. UPI—Half a million reservists could be mobilized during a national emergency thanks to the work of five reservists.
The reservists, all General

Electric employees, recently completed a set of computer programs for the Pentagon that will help mobilize manpower in case of war.
