The Evening Gazette

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1870.

City and Neighborhood.

THIS is All Saints' Day. ANOTHER beautiful day. COUNCIL meeting to-night. THE first day of November. YESTERDAY was "All Hollow Eve." ANOTHER heavy frost this morning. Of course you will go to Dowling Hall to-night. DULL for locals, and dry time in all parts of the city. THE Mayor is too unwell to attend the Council meeting to-night. As a Dutchman, Schoolcraft beats all Germany. He is a brick. REV. JAS. HILL is doing good work at the Asbury M. E. Church. A NUMBER of sportsmen left the city for a hunt to-day. Quails. NOT a case in the Mayor's Court this morning. All dull and dry. THE order of Odd Fellows is in a prosperous condition in this city. KATHY PUTNAM at Dowling Hall to-night. A change of programme. THE Council meeting to-night will be an important one we are informed. TWENTY arrests were made by the police officers during the past month. BUSINESS in all departments are good for the commencement of the week. SCHOOLCRAFT has new people at the Academy of Music to-night. Go and see. CAPT. ALLEN, of the Express, will go to keeping house. A baby, large and fine. TWO THOUSAND old newspapers for sale at this office, at fifty cents per hundred. THE Katie Putnam band was out on the street yesterday, making music for the people. SCHOOL boys still use those annoying slings called negro killers, an break windows every day. TOUT & MCKENNA, opposite the Post office, sell the best cigars in the city. They make 'em. THE City Treasurer will make his regular monthly statement of the finances of the city to-night. BURGLARS are still at work in the city. Almost every night now some house is broken into and robbed. B. W. SMITH was chosen Superintendent of the Sunday School at Centenary M. E. Church last Sabbath. BISHOP JNO. SCOTT of the Evansville Gazette, with his "cloak around him," left for Evansville this morning. DEPUTY U. S. MARSHALS are now summoning witnesses for the U. S. Court, now in session at Indianapolis. WE hear all who have business in the Criminal Court speak in praise of Judge Long. He presides with dignity. E. G. VAN RIPER will certainly be the Democratic candidate for Mayor in Evansville. He will be beaten. A Lot of splendid hogs were driven through the city yesterday evening. We did not learn where they were going. E. F. NANCE, with Bement & Co., will please accept our thanks for late New Orleans papers. They are acceptable. "O" the huge string of locals to-day from the New York Store. They are opening an immense lot of new goods. NEARLY one hundred reserved seats were sold yesterday for the theatrical entertainment at Dowling Hall last night. THE FACT that a well-known citizen found a kind friend, who lodged him on his back to his home the other night, is not conclusive evidence that the afore-said "well-known" was drunk. He was only tired—"only this and nothing more."

ALL HALLOW EVE.—We clip the following from an exchange. It will be read with interest: "Of all the quaint superstitions that have been handed down to us, there are none that have taken a deeper hold upon the popular imagination than the observance of yesterday, the 31st of October, known as All Hollow Eve, or Halloween. Its origin is not known, but it is clearly a relic of Pagan ages, for there is nothing in the Church Observance of the ensuing day of All-Saints to have originated such remarkable ideas as are connected with this festival, or such singular practices as those which distinguish it. The leading belief in regard to Halloween, is that of all others, it is the time when supernatural influences prevail, the time when spirits, both of the visible and invisible world, walk abroad and can be invoked by human powers for the purpose of revealing the mysterious future, and spirits may be called from the vasty deep at will. All Saints' Day is a festival in honor of all the angels and saints of Heaven, observed in the Roman Catholic churches on November 1st, and also in the Protestant Episcopal and Lutheran churches. In the Eastern churches the same festival has been observed since the fourth century. In the West it was instituted by Pope Boniface IV, in the early part of the seventh century, on the occasion of dedicating the Pantheon, a temple built by Marcus Agrippa, B. C. 25, in honor of Jupiter the Avenger and all the gods, to the worship of the true God, under the invocation of the Virgin Mary and all the saints. The church is still standing, and is called the Rotunda. This feast became general in the ninth century, and is of the first class with an octave. The office was composed by Pope Pius V. on the basis of an older one. The day after All Saints is called All Saints' Day, and it is set apart by the Catholic Church for the commemoration of all the faithful departed, for whom the mass of all requiem is said, and the office of the dead recited. In Germany the people, both Catholic and Protestant, visit the graveyards on this day, and strew flowers on the graves of their friends." DOWLING HALL.—We were gratified to see so large an audience at Dowling Hall last night, the occasion of the first appearance in this city of the beautiful and gifted actress, Katie Putnam. She appeared in the role of "Little Nell," and "Marchioness" in "The Old Curiosity Shop," personating these characters to the admiration of the audience. Miss Putnam is one of the few actresses on the American stage, who possesses great versatility of talent. She is at home in whatever she undertakes. She is well sustained by the company, which is one of the best we have ever seen traveling. To-night "Sans Souci" will be presented for the first time here. It is a new play, and was written expressly for Miss Putnam. Of course the house will be filled. The loud applause with which Miss P. was greeted last night, is evidence of the appreciation of her auditors, of which she may well feel proud, for it is not the easiest thing in the world to please a Terre Haute audience. ONE of our physicians was called to a peculiar case yesterday. A fast young man had been on a fearful drunk, and in a frantic attempt to "grape," dislocated his jaw. When the physician arrived, he was suffering most intensely, mouth wide open, just as if he would go to "Kingdom come!" in a moment. His comrades were greatly frightened, but the physician informed them that the case was not an alarming one. In double quick, he put that "jaw" in its right place. Moral—Young men when you get drunk don't "grape"—it is dangerous—dislocating. ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—At the Academy of Music last night, there was a large audience. The entertainment gave perfect satisfaction to all who were there, we are assured. J. S. Berry in his quick changes won great applause. All the performers now engaged at this place of amusement, are first class in their line, and they deserve success. For imitable drollery, commend us always to Luke Schoolcraft, who always brings down the house. To-night there will be a change of programme. If you would have a good hearty laugh, go to the Academy of Music. TERRE HAUTE furnishes its butchers with market stalls, rent free, in order to enable them to sell meat at reasonable prices, but it does not seem to have the desired effect. Wouldn't it be as reasonable to provide the merchants with store room free of rent?—N. A. Ledger. Rather a pertinent question that. Perhaps merchants would feel proud to have store rooms free of rent. It would be a big job for the city, however. INCORRECT.—Westated yesterday that the loss of property by the collision on the Vandalia Railroad, at Greenville, a few days ago, would reach $25,000. President W. R. McKeen informs us that it will not exceed $5,000. Our informant gave an incorrect statement. SHALL we, or shall he not have a musical entertainment in the city this winter, by home talent? We have abundance of good musicians in our city, who could if they would, give a most pleasing and interesting entertainment, and by all means, let us be thus favored. THE Evansville Courier copies a paragraph from an exchange, and credits it to the GAZETTE. The paragraph never appeared in the GAZETTE. So much for accuracy. If you would consult your interest, consult the advertising columns of this paper, in which you will find a large number of new advertisements. Read them. THE RAILROAD from Princeton to Mount Carmel are being laid. The work on it is progressing fast, and will be completed by the 1st of December, we are informed. IT is said that the reason of the increase of the license at the Opera House, in Evansville, is owing to the fact that the majority of the council wanted to be "dead-heads," and the theater fellows could not see it. Revenge is sweet.
